

Guest Housing Services

Welcome to the Guest Housing Services program at Phramongkutklao College of Medicine and Hospital, Bangkok, Thailand. We are pleased to share information about our services with you. In addition to our apartment-style accommodations that highlight privacy, comfort, and convenience we offer meeting spaces and recreational activities.

At Housing Services, we offer a secure and comfortable living environment, combined with other amenities that include furnished 2 and 4 bedroom apartments equipped. Space is limited and reservations are made on a first come, first serve basis. Guests share a fully furnished living room and dining room area. For those who prefer to eat in, our fully equipped kitchens (not including cookware and utensils) include microwave, refrigerator/s and coffee maker.
